Delegate James Wickersham Holds Rousing Meeting Defines His Platform

Delegate to Congress, James Wickersham, arrived in Wrangell as scheduled early last Monday morning, coming up from Ketchikan on the gas boat Harry in company with Mr. John Rustgard, of Juneau. Delegate Wickersham spent the day renewing old acquaintances here and in the evening delivered an address on the Political issues confronting Alaskans.

In his address Delegate Wickersham, announced his candidacy for re-election at the coming election on November 7th 1916 on a straight independent ticket. Mr. Rustgard in a short speech told of some of the things Delegate Wickersham has accomplished in Washington for the Territory of Alaska.

During his address Delegate Wickersham spoke at length on the Prince Rupert Fish Bill and also on the Alexander Fish bill explaining them to his hearers. Delegate Wickersham went on record to work for a completion of the Dry Straits providing the engineers report of the survey is satisfactory. In defining the platform on which he stands Delegate Wickersham stated:

The lawful control of transportation rates to, from and in Alaska.

The enforcement of the Interstate Commerce and Anti-Trust laws in Alaskan trade, commerce and transportation.

The prompt completion of the government railroad; the extension of a system of public roads and trails and government telegraph lines to all parts of the Territory.

The passage of laws by Congress for the extension of the powers of the Alaska Legislature over fisheries and fur bearing animals, and the enactment of such laws as will save the fisheries from destruction and the enactment of such laws as will require these engaged in Alaskan fisheries to pay their just proportion of taxes for the development of Alaska and her government.

The enactment of laws by Congress extending the powers of our Legislature so as to permit the full development of an American type of Territorial government in Alaska.

Statehood for Alaska as soon as it can be organized in the interest and to the advantage of the people.

The abandonment of the present useless and harmful forest and other reservations in Alaska.

Opposition to the levy of any tax on trade or business in Alaska by Congress, and the repeal of the law now providing for such system, and the control of taxation in Alaska by the Territorial Legislature.

The appointment of Alaska Alaskans, and none others, to appointive offices in Alaska; and I utterly repudiate that plank in the Seward platform seeking to take away from the people of Alaska their right to be consulted in the consideration of such appointment and to give the sole power of naming such officials to a Seattle lawyer; it is un-American, un-Republican and the beginning of boss rule in Alaska by the great corporations able to employ the lawyer; I pledge the people of Alaska that if I am elected I will not recommend any man for an appointive office in Alaska who is not first approved by the people of the Territory, and by those residing in the vicinity where he is to serve.

The enactment of primary election laws.

Finally, I shall support Hughes and Fairbanks, and the National Republican Platform, unless they or those representing them shall interfere with the passage of needful and beneficial laws for Alaska, in which event I shall stand by Alaska and her interests, as I always have done, without regard to party threats or favor.

After the address a public reception was held in honor of Delegate Wickersham, dancing and card playing were the diversions after which lunch was served. Delegate Wickersham left Tuesday noon on the Karen for Petersburg.

Big Liner Burns Off Oregon Coast

Marshfield, Ore., Sept. 15—Fire last night destroyed the Pacific Coast liner Congress two miles off Coos Bay.

No lives were lost. The passengers and crew were rescued by steamers from here.

The Congress was enroute from Seattle to San Francisco and carried 216 passengers and a crew of 175 and was in command of Capt. Cousins. The fire started at 3 p. m. yesterday in the second hold near the steerage.

Seattle, Sept. 16—The hull of the burned liner Congress is now anchored off the shore at Marshfield and an investigation will be made at once to determine some value. The vessel is completely gutted by the fire.

There were 428 persons aboard the Congress at the time of the fire. C. L. Suffice, ships barbor, discovered the fire the origin of which is still a mystery. Many of the passengers and crew saved only their hand luggage.

Previously to the passengers leaving the boat the Congress was headed for the Oregon coast with full steam until the flames finally compelled the fireroom crew to leave. There was no excitement and the boats were lowered in fine shape. The Congress had a fire drill every day and all the crew were well trained.

London, Sept. 16—The British, French and Serbian forces have gained additional successes in the Macedonia front, and yesterday took Bulgarian positions over a half mile deep. The Serbs have captured Makelidemi and the Bulgars have retreated over 12 miles before the allies rush.

Reports A Gold Strike On Conover Creek Up Stikine River

According to Captain Kalkins of the river boat Rex which arrived down the first of the week from Telegraph, there has been a rich gold strike made on Conover Creek by a prospector named "Clearwater" Jackson.

The new diggings are course gold and is running better than $22 to the yard.

Conover Creek empties into the Clearwater about 12 miles back from the Stikine River. And according to rivermen it is 125 miles to the Clearwater which makes it about a 137 miles from Wrangell to the new diggings.

The Rex left again Saturday morning for up river and is taking supplies for Clearwater Jackson.

British Make Big Gains At Somme

London, Sept. 16—By smashing the German front for over six miles in the vicinity north of Somme, the British today made the most important gains since the great offensive movement began. Three important towns and two woods were taken. The British are also in possession of the heights north of Compiègne which gives them command of the approaches to Bapaume. The Germans are fighting stubbornly but are being slowly driven back.

Longshoremen Stone Docks In Seattle

Seattle, Sept. 16—Five hundred longshoremen rioted last night along the water front and stoned the Grand Trunk Pacific Dock and also other docks doing considerable damage. A special call for police was made and after arriving on the scene arrested eighty of the strikers.

Prohibition Carried In Canada

Vancouver, Sept. 16—Prohibition carried by the civilian vote throughout Canada, but it is claimed by the wets that the Provincial soldiers vote, who are now in the field, will change the majority to the wets but the real outcome will not be known before January.

Premier Bowser will relinquish all posts at once to the new Liberal leader Mr. H. C. Brewster, of Victoria, who will be designated Premier and will be asked to form his cabinet at once. Mr. Brewster is a young man engaged in the lumber business in Victoria.

The Liberal party won the election by an overwhelming majority. Woman suffrage carried throughout the country and may carry by a two to one majority. The Liberals elected twice as many members as the Conservatives and Premier Bowser and other cabinet members were defeated badly except the Secretary of the Province and the Minister of Education.

Atlin, Sept. 16—Dr. Young, of Atlin, states that the election in his district is close but that seemingly the prohibition party has the best of it, but the drys majority seems to be growing as the returns come in from the outlying districts.

New General In Command On Bulgarian Front

London, Sept. 16—According to latest reports General Von Mackensen has arrived on the German and Bulgarian front to take command of the armies of Prince Frederick.

Puffer—Let's have it. Duffer—She told our boy Willie that she was his nearest relative, but that I was his closest.
—Indianapolis Star.

Couldn't Deny It.
"You're a two faced man," exclaimed the disappointed office seeker. "I'm not afraid to tell you so."
"Two faced?" smiled the eminent statesman. "My dear friend, I am worse than that. The papers have printed fifty different portraits of me, and no two of them look alike."—Chicago Tribune.

Probably.
The witness testified that he had been knocked down by a motorcar and that the chauffeur, who was joy riding, had given no warning of his approach.
"Do you mean," asked the judge, "that he didn't have a horn?"
"No, your honor," replied the witness; "I think he'd had two horns."—Judge.

LIVE WITH A PURPOSE.

Seize then the minutes as they pass. The wool of life is thought. Warm up the colors; let them glow by fire or fancy laughter. Live to some purpose; make thy life a gift of use to thee—a joy, a good, a golden hope, a heavenly argosy.—Coleridge.

He that is proud of riches is a fool, for if he be exalted above his neighbors because he hath more gold how much inferior is he to a gold mine!—Jeremy Taylor.

A Bachelor's Outburst.

Dear sir, I am a bachelor.
My income is twelve hun.
'Tis small no doubt, yet I contrive
To have a lot of fun.

You'll think me selfish, yet until
I'm rich, I must own,
I'd rather be a bachelor
And jog along alone.

Far be it from me to decide
Or scoff at wedded bliss.
I've thought the matter over well,
And my opinion's this:

Though bachelors are selfish things,
'Twould just as selfish be
To take a wife and bring her to
A life of drudgery.

Suppose I loved a girl (I do),
D'you think I'd care to see
Her toil and sell her pretty hands
The livelong day for me?

If I grow rich I'll crave the hand
Of her whom I adore;
If not, dear sir, I must remain
A lonely bachelor.

RECIPE FOR GRAY HAIR.

To half pint of water add 1 oz. Bay Rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and 4 oz. of glycerine. Apply to the hair twice a week until it becomes the desired shade. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. Full directions for making and use come in each box of Barbo Compound. It will gradually darken streaked, faded gray hair, and removes dandruff. It is excellent for falling hair and will make hair soft and glossy. It will not clog the scalp, is not sticky or greasy, and does not rub off.

McDonald Has New Tug Boat

The last word in small ocean going tugs will slide down the ways at Eagle harbor this week when the steam tug Inverness takes the water for the first time.
The vessel which is sixty-five feet in length, has engines rated at 200 horse power and will be used for general towing in Southeastern Alaska. The Inverness is owned by the McDonald-Weist Lumber Co., of Wrangell, a concern composed of the four McDonald brothers. Being lusty Scots, as their names would indicate, they took the flavor of heather in naming the vessel. The vessel will go to Juneau for general taming.

Two of the McDonald brothers
L. J. and Allen McDonald, are in Seattle from Wrangell to attend the launching and afterwards to come with the Inverness to Seattle where she will be fitted up. The two, after getting things shipshape
will take the Inverness North themselves.

The McDonald-Weist Lumber company was a former Washington concern, the owners of which having sold their mill in this state moved to Alaska with the idea of putting in a new plant. As yet they have not installed lumber appliances, but expect to later. The tug will then be used for mill towing. Up to that time she will try for her share of general towing through the waters of Southeastern Alaska. — Juneau Dispatch.
